TRANSPORTATION

To get to the city center of Brussels from the airport, you have the following options:

By Train
The normal metro tickets are not valid for travel on the Airport Line (train line) between the airport and Brussels; therefore you have to buy special trip tickets from the railway stations and at the airport railway station on Level - 1 before boarding the train. Check the latest ticket prices at www.b-rail.be.

There are three stops within the city at each of the main railway stations Brussels-Nord, Brussels-Centrale and Brussels-Midi. At each of these stations there are metro lines, buses and trams that connect to other parts of the city. Go to the website for Brussels public transport at www.stib.be.

By Bus
Every airport bus departs and arrives at the bus station at Level 0. There are a number of public, private buses and the Airport Express. The Airport Line is a public Brussels Airport bus operated by STIB that take you from and into the European district of Luxemburg and the city centre. There are two buses: Line 12 and Line 21.

By Taxi
All permanent taxi stands are located outside the Arrival Hall. It will cost approximately €35 to travel into the city centre (such as Brussels Centrale). Avoid getting into unlicensed vehicles posing as taxis which may overcharge you for their services. There is not a distinctive taxi look. Taxis are different makes and colours so look out for the yellow and blue license emblem and the triangular stand at the top of the taxi.

REGISTRATION

Meeting participants are kindly asked to register at the registration desk located at the reception of the Albert Borschette Congress Centre from 8:30am - 9:00am on both days of the conference.
